

Austin's Funny Men Appear at FireLake Grand

Shawnee, OK- Leave your problems behind and make plans to be at FireLake Grand as Jokers Wild returns with Headliner Matt Sadler and Featuring Matt Bearden on Friday, August 21st!

“FireLake Grand Casino is proud to present two of Austin’s award winning comedians,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “Austin’s comedy clubs have produced some very funny folks.”

The fast-paced and the high-energy style of Matt Sadler will have the audience rolling in the aisles. He made his debut at The Velveta Room. After working hard and perfecting his joke-telling abilities, writing hilarious material, and taking his show on the road, he has achieved a pro status with impressive credits to his name.

In 1999, Sadler competed and won a talent search sponsored by HBO beating out 116 other comedians. He flew to Los Angeles and appeared at the Hollywood Improv. Then in 2005, Sadler won the Carnival Comedy Challenge. He has also entertained the troops overseas in the Middle East and Asia. He has also been on “Austin Stories.” Sadler’s credits also include being the host of a game for XBox and Playstation 2 called, "The Guy Game".

Then Matt Bearden, another Austin comedian, will share his special brand of humor. Bearden began polishing his act in 1995 and has acquired a long list of credits to his name. Being winner of the Funniest Person in Austin Contest along with appearances on Comedy Central’s Premium Blend and Rollergirls catapulted his career. Recently, Bearden was voted “Best Funny, Funny Man” in Austin Chronicle Best-of-Austin Critics' Poll.

Bearden also has achieved success in acting with films like Wrong Numbers and The Journeyman. He also produces, shoots, and edits short films and videos for entertainment industry and corporate clients.
