
Freestyle Cage Fighting at FireLake Grand Features Oklahomans

Shawnee, OK- Get ready for pulse pounding action! Freestyle Cage Fighting returns to FireLake Grand on Saturday, December 11th at 7 PM.

“FireLake Grand will once again host Freestyle Cage Fighting,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “We are pleased to have Oklahomans Matt Grice and Josh Bryant featured in the co-main events. This promises to be another exciting night for fight fans.”

Fighting in the Light Weight Class, Matt “The Real One” Grice, from Norman, brings an impressive professional record of 12 wins, three losses, and no draws. He has scored five knockouts, and two submissions.

Matt began his career as a high school wrestler and won the Oklahoma State Wrestling Championship four times. With several universities trying to recruit him, he stuck to his Oklahoma heritage and chose OU. However, an automobile accident sidelined his wrestling career. After enduring several surgeries and taking time to heal, he was back in training and fighting in the cage. He has fought in the UFC, X-1, Ultimate Texas Showdown, and Freestyle Cage Fighting. Matt’s determination is evident in the ring.

And in the next main event from Broken Arrow and weighing in at 185, Josh “The Beast” Bryant boasts a record of 10 wins, only 1 loss, and no draws. With two knockouts and four submissions, he will have the audience on the edge of their seats.

Josh also began his career as a high school wrestler. After high school, he began training for MMA. After a 10 win no loss record, he was selected to be a cast member for the Ultimate Fighter 11 on Spike TV.
