

Never Wake up at a Hypnosis Show!

Shawnee, OK- Prepare to be mesmerized as FireLake Grand's Jokers Wild welcomes Dale K, hypnotist on November 20th. The only hypnotist to receive a nomination for Comedian of the Year, Dale K captures his audiences with outrageous hypnosis and comedic wit.

"Dale K has an amazing hypnosis show that convinces even the strongest skeptics," said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. "The audience is in for one hilarious hypnosis show with a rock concert feel."

Growing up in Woodstock, Ontario, Dale K was obsessed with television. He includes Sesame Street, Johnny Carson, David Letterman, and Hee Haw among his favorites. He saw his first hypnotist on tv and was "immediately hooked." He began to attend shows featuring hypnotists and eventually found some that encouraged him. Then he studied clinical hypnosis courses.

Dale K considers himself lucky to be able to do what he enjoys and make a living at it. He travels over 250,000 miles a year performing in a wide variety of venues. He says he wants to educate people about the truth of hypnosis. He wants to impart how real it is and, of course, how entertaining it can be.

While the movies usually portray hypnosis as walking zombies that are controlled by an evil hypnotist, Dale K reveals that hypnotism is not control, but rather an encouragement through relaxation. After achieving complete relaxation, participants do and say funny things.

Dale's hobbies involve visiting museums, amusement parks, movies, concerts, and traveling. He also loves to fly large power kites. He says they are so large they can drag him, pick him up and throw him back to the ground, but he will fly them for hours if he has a good wind.
