Southern Redneck Comedy at FireLake Grand

Shawnee, OK- When Etta May, the “Queen of Southern Sass,” takes the stage, the fun begins at FireLake Grand on Friday, February 19th.

“Etta May’s special brand of redneck humor is sure to leave the audience holding their sides and wiping their eyes,” declared Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “Etta May’s comedy hits a mark that everyone can relate to.”

Growing up with nine older brothers in Bald Knob, Arkansas, Etta May had to be tough. She has been described as “Minnie Pearl with a migraine.” While attending a kegger at a friend’s house, she met Delbert, and it was love at first sight. They have three boys and a girl. She claims that she just waits for her family “to do something stupid” and then uses it for her comedy routine.

Etta May discovered that she had the gift of comedy during bingo game at a Catholic church. When ball ejector got stuck, she started telling stories to fill up the time, and the rest is history. Etta May has been on Comic Strip Live, MTV, Oprah, CMT’s Comedy Stage, and is a regular on the Bob & Tom radio show.
