
Comedy Returns to FireLake Grand

Shawnee, OK- Jokers Wild Night at FireLake Grand Casino will welcome Slade Ham and Sam Demaris on Friday, January 15th. Guaranteed to be a hilarious evening, these two comics view life from a different perspective.

“FireLake Grand Casino is proud to present two of the funniest comedians from Texas,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “Texas comedy clubs have produced some outstanding comics.”

Coming from Beaumont, TX, Slade Ham has spread his comedic wings across four continents and twenty two countries over the last ten years with USO. His comedic history is impressive. In 2006, he headlined XM Radio’s Best of Texas and his CD Redemption is among XM Comedy’s top requested. In 2008, Slade took part in Houston’s Funniest Person Contest. He also is a regular on The Bob & Tom Show.

With a newsletter and an online weekly blog, Slade Ham has thousands of dedicated fans. This comedian is on the cutting edge of comedy.

Joining Slade on stage, Texan Sam Demaris knew that he wanted to be a performer from an early age. A member of Houston’s High School for the Performing and Visual Arts from age fourteen, Sam went on to the University of Houston declaring a theatre major. Although he didn’t graduate, he began his career as a comedian in 2001. Then in 2002, he won Houston Laff Stop’s “Houston’s Funniest Person” contest, edging out 65 other comedians.

Sam Demaris has not only toured the US, but he has also done a two week tour of Iraq and Kuwait performing for the US Army. Sam said that was an honor that he will never forget.
