“FireLake Grand Casino takes great pride in bringing the comedy of Larry the Cable Guy to Oklahoma,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “His blue collar comedy style will have the audience laughing for days.”

Daniel Whitney, better known as Larry the Cable Guy, was born and raised in Pawnee City, Nebraska. His father served as a pastor until he moved the family to West Palm Beach, Florida when Daniel was 16. He began his standup comedy career on a dare and became successful quickly. He developed his Larry persona while acting as a radio host. His fictional characters took off and made him known across the nation.

Larry has also found success in the movies as the star of Witless Protection, Delta Farce, and Larry the Cable Guy: Health Inspector. With three gold albums, starring roles in Comedy Central and Blue Collar Comedy Tour, and the voice of Mater in Cars, Larry has come a long way from the pig farm in Pawnee City, Nebraska.
