
Lorrie Morgan & Pam Tillis at FireLake Grand

Shawnee, OK- Two of Country Music's Sweethearts, Lorrie Morgan and Pam Tillis, will grace the stage of FireLake Grand Casino on March 5, 2010 at 7 pm.

Both daughters of Country Music Stars, Lorrie Morgan and Pam Tillis have carried on the legacy handed down to them by their fathers. Lorrie Morgan's father, George Morgan of the Grand Ole Opry, had her sing with him when she entered her teen years. She sang "Paper Roses" with her dad on the Grand Ole Opry to begin her career. Pam Tillis, daughter of Mel Tillis, decided early she wanted a career in the music industry on her own terms. As a singer and songwriter, she has made her mark on Country Music as well.

"FireLake Grand once again is presenting some of the best Country Music talent in Lorrie Morgan and Pam Tillis," said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. "These two stars have not only carried on the legacy they inherited, but they have also made their own distinctive marks on Country Music."

As the youngest person to have a place in the Grand Ole Opry, Lorrie Morgan continued her father's legacy by going on the road with his band after he passed away in 1975. She signed on with RCA and began producing a long line of hits. Recognizing a great song, Lorrie has selected numerous songs that became hits. With 14 top-ten hits, seven albums that have gone gold and platinum, she has garnered her share of fame with four Female Vocalist of the Year Awards.

Another of Country Music's premier artists, Pam Tillis has had her share of success. Winner of The CMA Female Vocalist of the Year, Pam has written a number of hit songs, some she recorded and some other top singers have recorded. Pam has topped the charts repeatedly and been inducted into The Grand Ole Opry. She has also appeared in glamour magazines, on television, and in movies. But perhaps her greatest achievement is in the songs that she writes that speaks from the soul. Although she has done pop, jazz, and R&B, she says that the more traditional country music from her youth influences her music.

Tickets for this fabulous concert, from $15 to $35, may be purchased at FireLake Grand Casino Gift Shop or by calling 405-96-GRAND, or by logging on to www.firelakegrand.com.
