“Don’t look, Ethel!”

Shawnee, OK- Country legend Ray Stevens will light up the stage at FireLake Grand Casino on April 11th.

“FireLake Grand Casino takes great pride in bringing in quality entertainment and the comedy of Ray Stevens,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “He is a true legend in the entertainment industry.”

Ray Stevens sees the funny side of life. His humor comes from his keen observation of the events of the day. Perhaps best known for his humorous songs from “The Streak” and “Ahab the Arab” to “Gitarzan”, Ray Stevens has tickled our collective funny bone for the last forty- eight years.

Stevens also wrote songs of a more serious nature. “Mr. Businessman” and “Everything is Beautiful” are as appropriate today as when he wrote and recorded them.

Music became Stevens’ central focus at age seven while taking piano lessons. He said that he suddenly realized that music “made sense.” He recorded his first song at age eighteen.

Ray Stevens’ career not only involved writing and recording songs, but also producing other stars, owning a theater in Branson for fifteen years, and owning his own record label.

Ray Stevens created his own musical genre by spoofing everything from trends to Tarzan flicks. This country legend has certainly left his mark on music and comedy.
