

Two Times the Comedy at FireLake Grand!

Shawnee, OK- FireLake Grand Casino welcomes two comedians from Houston, Texas Tommy Drake and Bob Biggerstaff. Come join the fun on Friday, September 18th at 8pm.

Growing up in California, Tommy Drake developed an interest in magic. As a teen, he held magic shows and entertained at parties. After a short stint in New York, he returned to California and worked at a theme park. He became an actor and director of an interactive street theater. He learned how to be a professional entertainer interacting with a wide variety of people in all kinds of situations.

Eventually, Tommy moved to the Houston area and began his stand-up comedy career entering the Funniest Person in Houston contest at the Laff Stop. Although he didn't take first place, he did get a job as an MC at the club. Then later, he became a featured comedian there and at other surrounding clubs. Perhaps his biggest break came when he was offered a job for Cher's Farewell Tour.

Bob Biggerstaff moved to Houston from Liverpool, NY during his teenage years. While attending the University of Houston, he served as doorman of the Laff Stop. It wasn't long until he began to perform there on open mic night. He developed his comedic style there and became one of Houston's premier comics winning the title of Funniest Person in Houston in 2003.

Biggerstaff has gained success in numerous comedy competitions including "Search for the Next Great Comic", "The Lucky 21", and Comedy Central's "Open Mic Fight". He has also appeared on Last Comic Standing, "Live at Gotham" and the Bob and Tom Radio Show. From colleges and comedy clubs to military bases all over the world, Bob has entertained thousands.
