Legends in Concert have the greatest collection of celebrity impersonators ever assembled. Each artist looks and sounds like the celebrity they portray complete with hair, make-up, mannerisms, costumes, and choreography.

Elvis impersonator, Joe Hall, is a top three Elvis Presley Estate winner and a top five finalist on America's Got Talent. Joe says that he grew up knowing who Elvis was, but his connection to the King of Rock and Roll didn't happen until February 2006. While cleaning out his apartment during a move, he discovered an old cd of Elvis Presley. When the song “It's Now or Never” came on, he felt an instant connection. He began collecting Elvis' music. Joe says that the great thing about Elvis' music is that it will match any mood from the energetic music of the 50's to the ballads of the 70's. He began doing Elvis impersonations at a Halloween party and that launched his career.
