“The King” of Rock & Roll Returns

Shawnee, OK- Elvis sightings are sure to be the talk of the town as FireLake Grand presents Travis LeDoyt, “The World’s Best Young Elvis” on Saturday, July 9th at 7pm. This special tribute to “The King” is one of the most convincing to ever take the stage.

Born in Greenfield, MA the middle child of five, Travis LeDoyt’s impishness and wit entertained his family. They were sure that he was going to be an entertainer. Early on he was fascinated with music and listened to a wide variety of musical styles. He began to play the piano at nine and then began writing songs soon after. He plays the piano, keyboard, and guitar.

Born the year that Elvis died (1977), Travis never got to see “The King,” but he became a fan after he researched more about him and understood why Elvis became known as “The King” of Rock & Roll. Travis focuses on Elvis’ legendary early years and a time when Elvis was respected for his music as well as his generosity and humility. So it is with utmost respect for Elvis that Travis LeDoyt performs his tribute to “The King.”

Not only has Travis captured the style and voice of Elvis at his best, he also breathtakingly resembles “The King.” Spotlighting Elvis’s prime from 1954-59, Travis LeDoyt offers a step back in time and a dynamic tribute to “The King.”
