
FireLake Grand Presents Country Soul Diva Wynonna

Shawnee, OK- Wynonna Judd will set the hearts of Country Music fans on fire as she takes the stage at FireLake Grand on April 17th at 7pm.

“We are excited to welcome Wynonna to FireLake Grand,” said Brad Peltier, Director of Marketing for FireLake Grand Casino. “She will be singing songs from her new album, Sing: Chapter 1 as well as a selection of her chart topping hits. She is truly one of country music’s premiere vocalists.”

Both born in Kentucky, Wynonna and Naomi, her mother, began their musical career together in the early 1980’s. As they harmonized, they sang about love, family, and country values. That winning combination won them CMA Country Duo awards seven years running. They also received five Grammy awards. Together they have sold more than 20 million records. Wynonna began her solo career in 1992.

In her latest album, Sing: Chapter 1, Wynonna sings the songs that have influenced her through the 25 years of her musical career. The album contains eleven songs from country, blues, and rock as well as a new song entitled “Sing.” The legendary songs from the album include “I’m So Lonesome I Could Cry,” “When I Fall In Love,” “That’s How Rhythm Was Born,” “Ain’t No Sunshine,” and “I Hear You Knocking” and others. With classics like these and her many hit songs, this concert is certain to thrill Wynonna fans.
