FIRELAKE GRAND CASINO COMES ALIVE WHEN PETER FRAMPTON TAKES THE STAGE

SHAWNEE, OKLA. May 31, 2007—One of the great arena rockers of the 1970s, Peter Frampton is back on the music scene and will perform for one night only at FireLake Grand Casino in Shawnee, Okla. on Monday, June 11 at 7 p.m.

Frampton rocketed to fame in 1976 when he released the live album Frampton Comes Alive! which was recorded at San Francisco's Winterland. The album would become the best selling live album up to that point, with sales reaching over 16 million worldwide. It reached number one on the charts and would stay on the charts for two years. The album featured Frampton's signature use of the talk-box guitar effect and spawned his first three hit singles: "Baby, I Love Your Way," "Do You Feel Like We Do," and "Show Me The Way." As a result of the success of the album and the supporting tour, Rolling Stone named Frampton Artist of the Year in 1977.

In the years following the release of Frampton Comes Alive!, he released several more albums that met moderate success, including I'm Into You which sold close to 1 million copies. As his solo career seemed to slow, he began working with other legendary artists such as Ringo Starr, his former schoolmate David Bowie, George Harrison and Jack Bruce, among others.

After several years out of the limelight, Frampton went back into the studio in 1986 and began recording and touring again. In 1995 he released the follow up live album Frampton Comes Alive II and increased his tour schedule. His latest album release, the all-instrumental Fingerprints, earned the 2007 Grammy Award for Best Pop Instrumental Album.

"Anyone who was alive in the 1970s, and most who know anything about music, knows the impact that Peter Frampton had on the music industry with his legendary album Frampton Comes Alive! We are excited to welcome him to our casino and look forward to experiencing his music first hand once again," Brad Peltier, marketing and public relations director for FireLake Grand Casino, said.

Tickets to see Peter Frampton live in concert are on sale now at the FireLake Grand Casino gift shop, or by calling 405-96-GRAND. Tickets are $29 to $69. Doors open at 6pm, the show starts at 7pm.
